The Alaska Fellows Program (AFP) has new positions open for the fall 2020 program start!

AFP is a fall-to-spring residential fellowship program that nurtures the next generation of Alaska-based leaders by pairing talented young people with strong communities and professional mentors in Sitka, Anchorage, Juneau — and starting in fall 2020, Fairbanks.

Apply for the Alaska Fellows Program

Program dates: Fall 2020 - Spring 2021
Locations: Sitka, Juneau, Anchorage, and Fairbanks

Open positions include:

• Conducting a climate risk assessment with globally-recognized investment leaders at the Alaska Permanent Fund Corporation;
• Joining the core team building a visionary two-year liberal arts college with Outer Coast;
• Advancing statewide entrepreneurship with the University of Alaska Center for Economic Development; and
• Supporting a cutting-edge startup accelerator with Launch Alaska.

We’re also excited to offer a virtual information session for the first time. If you’re considering applying or have already applied for this program year, we encourage you to join us via Zoom next Tuesday at 12pm AKDT (4 pm EDT) to ask questions and learn more about the program. You can sign up for the webinar here.

We recognize that this is an uncertain time for all of us. We’re currently planning to move forward with the fall 2020 program start as scheduled and don’t anticipate any programmatic changes, but we’re monitoring the COVID-19 pandemic closely and will keep you apprised as the situation evolves. In the meantime, we hope you and your families are safe and well.

Stay safe, and look for our next newsletter in your inbox soon!

Onward,

The AFP team
