My name is Samuel Chan and I work in the Office of Diversity and Inclusion at Georgetown School of Medicine. We would like to invite rising juniors (current sophomores) and rising seniors (current juniors) to apply to be part of our fourth cohort of fellows for the 2020 Dean of Medical Education’s Academy for Research, Clinical, and Health Equity Scholarship (ARCHES) program at Georgetown School of Medicine.

Spend your summer shadowing physicians, engaging in independent research, and learning our health equity in the Washington DC area. We encourage your students to APPLY NOW! [https://applyarches.som.georgetown.edu/]

Our deadline is Wednesday, February 26, 2020, at 11:59 PM EST and we are hosting upcoming outreach webinars. Click here to sign up for a webinar.

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY
Academy for Research, Clinical, & Health Equity Scholarship

The Dean of Medical Education's Academy for Research, Clinical, and Health Equity Scholarship (ARCHES) is a six-week program for ten undergraduate students who are rising juniors and seniors interested in pursuing medical studies.

All students are encouraged to apply, including those from backgrounds underrepresented in the health professions and those who identify as first-generation college students.

This program will engage selected participants in:

• Clinical experience
• Guided research
• Community-Based Learning at Georgetown University
• Greater DC community on issues of health equity

GUSOM ARCHES aims to strengthen the research and clinical skills of promising undergraduate students and prepare them for successful matriculation into medical school.

Program Dates & Benefits:

Dates: Wednesday, June 26 - Friday, August 9, 2019. Move out day is Saturday, August 10th.

Summer Stipend: $4,000 ($2,000 paid after the first 3 weeks - $2,000 paid conclusion of program)
