Apply for an 11-week, full-time, paid fellowship at the Peabody Essex Museum (PEM), one of the oldest and fastest growing art museums in the country.

PEM seeks rising leaders in the museum field and nonprofit cultural sector for our exciting, newly expanded Native American Fellowship Program. We are looking for graduate students and emerging cultural professionals of Native American, Native Hawaiian, or Alaska Native backgrounds who are eager to develop the knowledge, skills and networks necessary to become 21st-century community and museum leaders.

Fellows work with PEM’s dynamic staff and gain access to a comprehensive perspective on the theory and practice of museum management. Weekly workshops, field trips, mentoring and in-depth engagement on museum projects support Fellows in sustaining their existing skills while cultivating their professional development needs.

The Native American Fellowship Program at the Peabody Essex Museum is made possible by a generous grant from The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.

Apply now

APPLICATION DEADLINE
JANUARY 5, 2018

Go to pem.org/nasummerfellowship for more information about the program and application process.

Program offers stipend, housing and travel expenses. Academic credit is available upon official request.

For more information, please contact Jennifer Himmelreich (Diné), NAF Program Specialist, at jennifer_himmelreich@pem.org or 978-542-1894.

The Native American Fellowship Program at the Peabody Essex Museum is made possible by a generous grant from The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.