WCS ARCTIC BERINGIA IS LOOKING FOR A FULL-TIME:

LAGOON ECOLOGIST

APPLICATION DEADLINE: 2/29/2020

JOB DESCRIPTION:
This position leads the Arctic lagoon program by:
• Planning and implementing fisheries field studies,
• Training and supervising technicians,
• Managing data collected in the field,
• Communicating research results with a wide audience,
• Strengthening relationships with partner organizations,
• Assisting with report, manuscript, and grant writing.

QUALIFICATIONS:
The ideal candidate for this position has:
• MSc with 2+ years experience or PhD in related field,
• Strong writing and data management skills,
• Experience working in Alaska Native communities,
• Experience working in remote fly-in field settings,
• Familiarity with aquatic fish fauna of coastal Arctic AK,
• Experience working with beach seines, fyke and gill nets

TO APPLY:
Go to wcs.org/about-us/careers,
and search for job opportunities in Alaska
Also send CV and cover letter to:
arcticberingia@wcs.org